THE RANCH: STABLE OF WOMEN (PAPERBACK)

Independently Published, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Barbara's review on Goodreads  5-stars May 10, 2016 Briefly in Top 100 Mystery, Thriller & Suspense - April 2016 The sheriff is up to no good. He has purchased a remote ranch and converted its horse stable stalls into a group of small apartments. He collects fillies of the human variety to reside there, at least temporarily. Excerpts: The sheriff undid the older girl's restraints. He sat back in his chair and watched as she unbuttoned her top, then pulled off her well-worn denims and shoes. She hesitated a moment, then removed her underwear and bent over the sheriff's desk . "Very nice, Sissy." He took his time with it, getting out of his chair to cross the room and refill his coffee mug. The girl remained bent over, exposed and humiliated. He returned and examined her more thoroughly. - - - "Oh my God! You shot Bob! I can't believe you did that!" "No I didn't. You shot him, honey. I'm going to put him in the backseat of your car, drive it to Dallas, and abandon it in a crowded parking lot. When they find it, they'll find your weapon with your fingerprints all over it, not mine. The ballistics will match. I'll even bet it's registered in your name." "Why are you doing this?!"she asked, in a state of frenzied panic. "With your history of domestic abuse, you're going to look guilty, be a wanted woman. Say that you want to be my sex slave, or we make this look like a murder-suicide." - - - "Take off your clothes, Mrs. Miller." "I am not going to undress in front of my daughter's boyfriend." The clothes came off, the black trash bag got...
